

LAZARUS OUTDOOR BENCH BLACK

BQ-1005-02

Cool, composed, concrete. The Lazarus bench suits indoor interiors as much as sitting it out on the patio in the summer shade. Naturally attractive and durable in fiber-reinforced cement, whether you decide to pair it up with its concrete-counterpart (we've got a few winning options table-wise) or alongside a fine natural wood table, the result is sure to be pleasing. Its quality material keeps it fresh and contemporary, so achieving that modern look with pillows or throws is simple. Ideal as an entryway bench, dining bench, or an attractive accent seat for your plant or art collection.

- Fiber-reinforced natural cement
- Sits 3 people comfortably
