Contemporary and chic, this entertainment center combines natural materials and a classic black and white color scheme and shell motif to create a functional focal point. Crafted of Mango Wood with bone inlay, a natural wood finish on the outside of the case contrasts with black and white inlay on the door fronts and is complemented by a gray metal base and hardware and an off-white painted interior. There's one removable shelf behind each door, a 3-plug electrical outlet, ventilated back panel and soft-close hinges on the doors. We want to help make your downtime enjoying movies, electronic games or music even better. That's why we've thoughtfully designed a wide selection of home entertainment furniture in styles ranging from American-traditional to casual to modern.
